THE REIGNING BEAUTY IN PARIS.

The Beautiful Peruvian Who Dazzles One at First Sight.

From the London Truth.

The Western star has just risen from above the horizon. Of all the beauties I have ever seen she is in face, form, hair and complexion the most beautiful. I thought she was Mrs. Mitford, Commodore Vanderbilt's granddaughter, when I was struck by her wondrous beauty at a dance given by Mrs. George Cochrane. I have since met her at the Elvisee, and on last Wednesday night, at the Ministry of Public Instruction where a gentleman who furnished "high life" table talk to a boulevard print, assured me she was "la belle Americaine from New York; Mistress Mitford." The American girl, or young married woman, seems thoroughly to know what she is about, and her presence of mind never deserts her. The beauty of the season has nothing of this in her, and I understood why, when last night, at the grand Menier ball, I heard her announced as "Madame Gautherot." She is not, then, from the States at all, I reflected, "but from Lima." Her husband is not Mr. Mitford, and she has not a dollar of Commodore Vanderbilt's at her bankers. These diamonds were bought with the produce of sugar cane and coffee plantations. She was brought up in and among half-breeds who have no notion about women's rights, higher planes of thought, and transcendentalism. Her husband is a rich importer of colonial goods at Nantes, and happy to see her enjoy herself in her own way. Mrs. Gautherot may be so much as 24. Her head is classical, and she wears her naturally wavy hair in Grecian bandeaux. If her nose were an atom shorter, one might admire it more; and still I cannot say it is too long to be out of proportion with the other features. At first sight one is literally stunned by her beauty, which her dress sets off. In shape and color the ensemble and the details are perfect. Mme. Gautherot is a statue of Canova transmutated into flesh and blood and bone and muscle, dressed by Felix, and a coiffeur by his assistant Emile. All her contours are harmonious. But she has yet to make the acquaintance of the Graces and to obtain possession of the graces. There is a sameness in her beauty which, the first impression it causes one, places her at a disadvantage beside plain women with expressive eyes and clever mouths. I have seen her thrice in rapid succession. I know

SHE IS THE LOVELIEST CREATURE that I ever beheld coming out of the hands of a Paris dressmaker. But I feel, nevertheless, that I have sufficiently feasted my eyes upon her. Mme. Gautherot was dressed last night in a yellow silk dress, part of which was covered with a network of yellow beads and small white bugles. She also wore a necklace of diamonds set in the classical style, a brooch, bracelets, and Greek bandolieres in her hair, sparkling with brilliants. A small Diana crescent was attached to the foremost bandelette. A murmur of admiration greeted her wherever she went. The crowd opened, as if awestruck with her beauty, to let her pass. She is not apparently elated or excited by the spontaneous homage paid her. A waxen image could not have been more unmoved. No sentiment of coquetry was revealed in the large, limpid, and completely expressionless eyes. M. Parent, the architect, called her, "Pauline Bonaparte resuscitated." "But observe her ears," said an artist of the Charivari. "Pauline's were the despair of Canova; they were monstrously ugly. Mme. Gautherot's are simply perfect." And so they were. The "texture" of the neck and shoulders was a thing to throw painters into raptures. It was without morbidity, but smooth as a rose petal. A delicate pink shade came through the transparent white skin.

THE NEVADA MONTHLY.

To The Public:

THE UNEXPECTED DEMAND FOR COPIES of the Nevada Monthly, the popularity which the book has already obtained, and a desire on the part of the publisher to add many new and valuable features to its contents, has induced him to charge a small price for the magazine. This step has been taken after a thorough canvass of the field and a large subscription list. Many new contributors will be added, and the Monthly will be made correspondingly interesting and contain more reading matter. Its mining statistics, stock tables, etc., which will always be found reliable, will alone be, for future reference, worth the price of subscription, while its original sketches from the pens of some of Nevada's and California's brightest writers, its interesting and instructive selections, etc., will make it a welcome visitor to the family circle.

The rates of subscription, commencing with the April number, will be: By mail (postage paid) one year $3 50 " six months. . . 1 50 Single copies. . . 25

As an advertising medium, the Nevada Monthly will have no superior, its columns being eagerly read in every camp and mining town in Nevada and adjoining States and Territories. All advertisers will receive from the time their advertisements are inserted a complimentary copy. Please send subscriptions by postal money order. Write name and address legibly.

Editorial by A. Horse.

Geo. S. Elder, the well known freighter, was severely bitten by a reeve horse on Saturday, the Carson Times says. The animal reared against him, knocked him down, and bit the lower part of his face to the bone. The attack was so severe that four of Mr. Elder's front teeth were knocked out and a deep gash cut from the nose to the upper lip and from his lower lip to the chin.

A Man Shot At Eureka.

A Eureka dispatch says that Sunday morning at about 3 o'clock Billy Martin was killed by John Brent, the latter being Wells, Fargo & Co.'s messenger between Eureka and Palisade. The difficulty occurred in the Tiger saloon, while the parties were sitting at a table drinking beer. They had been together making the rounds of the theaters during the night, and seemed to be the best of friends. Martin had killed several men in his time, and was considered a desperate man. Brent was known to be quick and game, and so the most trivial disagreement between two such men was sufficient to lead to a fatal encounter. Brent was heard to say that he was as good a man as anybody. Martin immediately arose from the table and the shooting commenced, both men firing. Either three or four shots were fired, and Martin was instantly killed. The ball took effect in the side and ranged upward. The coroner's inquest was held yesterday. Brent was lodged in jail. Martin was a member of the Sheriff's posse who, last Summer during the charcoal troubles, killing five Italians. Bob Brown, another of the posse, was killed three months ago by John Chamberlain.

The Shooting in China Town.

The woman who was shot in China town on Sunday night is likely to recover. The ball struck her back, and glancing from the shoulder blade, ranged downwards, coming out at the loins. It is a painful flesh wound but not serious. Ah Bau, the fellow arrested for shooting her, is about as contemptible a specimen of humanity as China town could furnish. He is an insignificant looking object, and his face is as expressionless as a stone. He says he did not shoot the woman, and that he was in bed when the shot was fired. Ah Bau was taken to the Justice's court for examination this afternoon.

The New Northern Road.

Every person from the northern country with whom we converse, says the Lassen Advocate, speaks in the most emphatic manner of the favorable opinion of the persons in that region with regard to the speedy opening of the proposed new road from Alturas to Reno. It is bound to be a perfect success, as soon as settled spring weather will have rendered traveling more desirable, and the effects of the unprecedented storms of this long continued winter will have passed away.

POOR'S PICNIC GROUNDS.

A Reform Club Picnic This Month—Description of the Pleasure Grounds on Poor's Ranch Near Reno.

RENO, May 3, 1880.

Editor Gazette.—The picnic season is here. I do not announce this fact as an item of startling news, but simply as introductory to something else I wish to mention. Picnics will be in order soon, and it may not be generally known that within a few moments' ride from Reno is one of the finest and most commodious picnic grounds to be found anywhere in the state. I allude to the grounds recently prepared and fitted up by Judge Poor, about a mile and a quarter above town. By accident I visited the Judge's ranch, a few days ago, and was astonished to see how much labor and money had been expended in the preparation of these grounds. The grounds are situated on the north bank of the Truckee river, and contain something over twelve acres of land. All the underbrush has been removed, leaving the whole inclosure a beautiful grove of cotton-wood, balsam, willow and alder, through which drives and walks meander in all directions. A large pavilion will soon be erected in the centre of the grounds, for the accommodation of dancers. A narrow fish pond runs through the entire length of the grounds. The Judge will soon commence work on a dam calculated to connect the main land with a large island in the middle of the river, which will be used as recreation grounds, in connection with the main land above described. The dam mentioned will back the water between the island and main land, thus forming a beautiful crystal lake for boating and fishing. I learn that the Reform Club propose giving a picnic at these grounds, some time this month. Let parties getting up entertainments of this kind take a look at these grounds before deciding to hazard an expensive trip to Carson or elsewhere.

The Virginia City Elections.

The Virginia City election yesterday was lively. A good deal of scratching was done by both parties. The Enterprise says that as the returns were running last night the indications were that Stephens is elected Mayor; Brown, Chief of Police; Zartman, Tax Collector; Smith, Assessor; Mitchell, City Attorney; Fredericks, City Treasurer, and Coyne, McCurdy, Shaughnessy and Barclay, Aldermen.

Peter Jorgensen of Verdi procured from the County Clerk this morning a license to marry Nancy F. Fitzgerald of the same place. As the object of his affection is only sixteen years of age, the license could only be obtained by the consent of one or other of her parents. The father has filed his approval of the match.

Having fitted up my mill with improved machinery, I am now prepared to do all kinds of Planing, Surfing, Molding and Turning of every description on short notice. Custom work solicited. C. S. MARTIN, Proprietor.

Special Bargains.

Linen Suits for three dollars worth fifteen; something inconceivable, yet strictly true. All our dress goods, fancy goods, cloaks, ulsters and ladies' and children's underwear, at such low figures as Reno has never seen. To my carpets, oil cloth, and wall paper, I call special attention. My stock of goods as a whole, for assortment and style, has never been surpassed. I most respectfully invite the ladies of Reno to call and examine for themselves.

m3 ISAAC BARNETT.

The Great Desideratum found at last. Castor oil made pleasant. Parry's palatable Castor Oil is equal in medicinal activity to the ordinary unprepared Castor Oil, but has a pleasant in place of a nauseous taste. It is easily taken and retained by the stomach, even of delicate persons. Children take it readily and make no fuss about it. Osburn & Shoemaker, Agents for Washoe County.

"Birds of a feather flock together." This is just exactly what they should do; the redemptions being Geogel's Jewelry Store on Virginia Street, Reno.

Vacant Places.

In the dental rank will never occur if you are particular with your teeth, and cleanse them every day with that famous tooth-wash, SOZODONT. From youth to old age it will keep the enamel spotless and unimpaired. The teeth of persons who use SOZODONT have a pearl-like whiteness, and the gums a rosy hue, while the breath is purified, and rendered sweet and fragrant. It is composed of pure antiseptic herbs and is entirely free from the objectionable and injurious ingredients of Tooth Pastes, &c.

A New Invoice.

A new invoice of fine goods is coming in at Geogel's. There are some beautiful onyx and cameo sets, also diamonds and pearls.

Avoid All Further Trouble.

By having your watch fixed by Geogel, on West side of Virginia street.

The most solid and tasteful stock of jewelry yet found in Geogel's.

It is well known that I. Fredrick carries the largest stock of watches, clocks, and jewelry in Reno.

Soi Levy has such a lovely variety of ladies' and children's stockings and so very cheap, that short dresses will become all the rage. Don't you see the point, Dear Joe? Less dress goods.

Stop That Cough.

With a simple bottle of Shiloh's German Elixir. This is the most wonderful cough remedy ever introduced, being mild, yet positive in its action and soothing under all circumstances. Old and young may use it with perfect security. It is rich in the medicinal properties of tar, wild cherry and honey. Ask your druggist, Messrs. Osburn & Shoemaker, about its merits. They sell large quantities of it and it supercedes all others.

The penman bears the Prussian coat of arms and the facsimile signature of Dr. Kaiser on the wrapper and has his name blown in every 75 cent bottle. Samples sent. Large size 75 cents.

For Cheap Drugs, Toilet Articles, Patent Medicines, Perfumery, &c., call at Jno. F. Myers' Drug Store, two doors west of the postoffice.

Who fills your mind with the horrid thought that Dry goods have advanced? Only those who are anxious to grab the largest profits. Do not mind such piousness, but try the old Levi's store, examine his new mammoth stock and convince yourself of the tumble prices on goods have taken.

I. Fredrick defies anybody to make jewelry to order cheaper than he does.

A large assortment of ladies' and child's summer dress and lightest hats of the latest styles just received direct from New York, and selling at four bits a piece at Sol Levy's.

I. Fredrick's watch work has always given entire satisfaction.

Four doses of Mrs. Dr. Howe's celebrated rheumatism medicine will relieve the most intense pain. One bottle or more will cure. Sold by all druggists.

Store to Let. A store to let, one of the best locations in Reno. Apply at the State Hotel, 9th St.

If you want a good watch for little money call on Geogel for it.

Do You Believe It. That in this town there are scores of persons passing our store every day whose lives are made miserable by indigestion, dyspepsia, sour and distended stomach, liver complaint, constipation etc., when for 75 cents we will sell them Shiloh's Vitalizer, guaranteed to cure them. Sold by Osburn & Shoemaker, Druggists, Reno, Nevada.

Embroideries, New Ribbons, New Zephyrs, New Card boards, New Hair and Hat Ornaments, New Neck Wear, New Kid and Lace Gloves, New Buttons and many other new goods at Sol Levy's.
